

WELCOME TO SIQUIJOR,

the mystic island.

SOLILI FESTIVAL

Being a traditional marriage ritual the Solili dances serves as one of the highlights of the week-long Siquijor Charter Day celebration.

CANTABON CAVE

Being the most famous of Siquijor's over 45 caves, Cantabon cave's long, winding and difficult trek is both a challenge and a delight to any spelunker. Inside the cave a subterranean stream and beautiful stalactites and stalagmites abound the cave's huge chambers.

MT. BANDILAN NATIONAL PARK

This preserved rainforest is home to numerous and diverse endemic fauna and flora and several caves and natural springs. Other attractions include a shrine of Our Lady of Lourdes and The Way of the Cross up to the top of the mountain.

TULAPOS MARINE SANCTUARY AND MANGROVE TREE HOUSE

Being the biggest of the several marine sanctuaries, Tulapos marine sanctuary contains abundant species of fish, corals and other underwater life. A two-storey mangrove tree house provides a vast view over the sea and the shoreline.

CAPILAY SPRING

Capilay spring is a natural spring converted into a swimming pool situated in the town of San Juan. Many locals use its cold water for a swim or enjoy the shade of the spring park for a picnic.

CAMBUGAHAY FALLS

Cambugahay falls is the only enchanted falls in the island. See its several levels of waterfalls and enjoy its cool and refreshing waters. Secluded and relatively unexplored, the waterfalls surely invite trekkers for a refreshing dip.

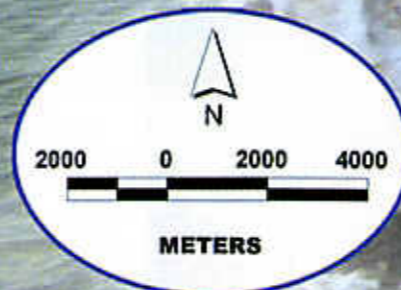

OLD ENCHANTED BALETE TREE

Because of its eerie outline created by hundreds of roots and vines hanging down, the tree is believed to be enchanted.

SIQUIJOR BEACHES

Numerous white sand beaches make up most of Siquijor Island's shoreline. Additionally Siquijor's coast is lined with mangroves, corals, fishes and other water life, which makes it an excellent attraction for diving enthusiasts.

ST. ISIDORE LABRADORE CHURCH

Constructed by the Spaniards in 1884 the Lazi convent is assumed to be the biggest and the oldest in whole Asia. It is believed to have been the vacation house for the Diocese's priest at that time.
